 - when you register with the site and/or apply for membership of England Boxing, your details are checked and matched against our existing records and those of your past or present Club, Region, registered coach and/or approved medical professional, in order to ensure that your profile is matched to the correct Medical Record and Boxing Record.

- we and/or regional registrars may from time to time perform necessary checks with third parties, for example to verify your details or information in your application, or in order to assess your suitability for within boxing (including DBS checks)
4. Medical Information. In addition to the information described at 2. And 3., England Boxing works with approved healthcare professionals and through its platforms provides them (and you) with online access to your medical records relevant for your participation in boxing. No others can see this information, including England Boxing, with the exception that we and certain regional officials are able to view basic information relating to your fitness to box (including your medical card and examination dates) in order to assess your capacity to participate in the sport.
 5. The legal basis for processing your personal data: we process your personal data either on the basis of your consent, where this has been given unambiguously, or on the basis that it is necessary for the performance of a contract between you and us (in the event of a purchase of products from our online shop), or on the basis that it is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by us in operating and making available the website..
 6. The recipients or categories of recipients of your personal data are: employees of England Boxing and we may use the information:
 - to provide you with information and services that you request from us or which are similar, including our telling you about products, services and events relevant to your participation in boxing;
 - to provide other users, including Regions, Clubs and Members (as defined in the terms and conditions here), with information you have agreed to share with them through the Insight system to enhance the efficiency of your participation in boxing;
 - to manage and administer boxing participation and membership of England Boxing;
 - to provide you, or permit selected third parties to provide you, with information about products or services we feel may interest you. If you do not want us to use your data in this way, you will always have the opportunity to opt out whenever you are contacted;
 - to notify you about our events or offers and changes to our services (we will only send you direct marketing by email if you have given us prior consent to receive it, or if we have collected your personal data during a sale or negotiations for sale of products or services); and
 - to ensure that content from the site is presented in the most effective manner for you and for your computer.

- from time to time we may need to exercise administrator rights to access membership profiles for testing and support purposes - we will only do so with the member's prior approval".

7. England Boxing retain personal data only for as long as is necessary. We need to retain it for at least three years after your affiliation with England Boxing ends, in order to provide data to bodies like Sport England, but our policy is to delete it after that period.
8. You have the right to request from us access to and rectification or erasure of personal data or to restriction of processing concerning you or to object to our processing of the data as well as the right to data portability.
9. If we are relying on your consent to process data, you may withdraw your consent at any time by notice to us.
10. You have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office about the manner in which or otherwise in respect of the manner in which we process your personal data.
11. Your provision of personal data to us is not in general subject to a contractual or legal requirement, although it is subject to a contractual requirement in the event of a purchase of goods from our online shop. In all other circumstances, if you choose not to supply your personal data to us, however, you may not be able to access certain areas of the website, nor use certain services.
